Quote of the Week

My dream is of a place where America will once again be seen as the last best hope of Earth.

Abraham Lincoln

October 24th is World Polio Day.

Meeting: Oct.10, 2017

Program: Our speaker was State Representative Terry Wilson. He discussed many difficult issues involving both state and local governments.

Meeting: Oct. 3, 2017

Program: Our speaker was Assistant Governor John Barber.

Meeting: Sept. 26, 2017

Program: The four Jarrell students talked about their experiences at RYLA camp.

Meeting: Sept. 19, 2017

Program: Dr. Steven Benold gave a program on PRIONS (Protein Infectious Particles).

Prions cause mad cow disease. The cattle industry in England and Ireland was devastated by this disease in the 1980's.

Future Events

EarlyAct FirstKnight® at Jarrell ISD-The next knighting ceremony will be held at two times on Wed. Oct. 18th (8:30 at the elementary school and 1:30 at the immediate school). Members are encouraged to attend one of the ceremonies.

Anniversary Dinner

Our club will celebrate our 20th anniversary on Oct. 24th at 6:00 at Cowan Creek. If you plan to attend, please sign up. Details in Clubrunner.

Sun City Arts and Crafts

Fair on Nov. 3rd-5th- Our club will partner with the CA to help with this annual event. Members can either sign up online or on the sheets circulated at weekly meetings. There are many jobs to do; everyone is encouraged to do their fair share.

Rotary's theme for October is Economic and Community Development

Future Meetings

Oct. 17th- We meet at the Delaney on Shell Road.
Oct. 24th- Anniversary dinner - no noon meeting.
Oct. 31st- District Governor Gene Holiman visits the club.

Mrs. Holiman will accompany the governor, and it is a tradition that the governor's wife do a special project during his Rotary year. Her project will be raising money for Polio Plus. She will bring a piggy bank which we will help her to fill.

The editors would like to thank Glenn Coward and Don Bender for taking notes for The Sun Light in our absence.
