Quote of the Week

Intelligence is the ability to adapt to change.

Stephen Hawking

Meeting Order (Oct. 14)

Presiding Bob Elam
Prayer Don Kelley
Pledge Don Bender
4-Way Test Bill Harries

Last Program (Oct. 14)

Our speaker was Laura Antoine, director of the GISD Mentor Program.

There is a great need for mentors in the Georgetown schools, as enough are not available for the many students requesting one. Laura said that just a small amount of time (30 minutes) each week can really help a student.

Contact Laura Antoine or Tom Minor for more information.

Tom has been a mentor for over 10 years and is presently mentoring a 4th grade student at McCoy School.

Program (Oct. 7)

Hanspeter Tobler, District Governor, was our speaker.

His presentation was entertaining, and he revealed something that most of us didn't know: that District 5870 contributes more money to the Rotary Foundation than any other district in the country.

Governor Tobler presided over the installation of our two newest members, Allison Dickmann and Lee Safford. We will learn more about them when they do their bios. Welcome Allison and Lee.

Anniversary Dinner

Have you signed up with Adaire Wolf for this annual Rotary Club event? It is a night of fun and fellowship, and it will also provide an opportunity to get acquainted with our many new members. Details will be given at today's meeting.

Arts and Crafts Fair

This annual Sun City event is only weeks away, and our club's assistance is needed to help make it a continued success.

President Bob has asked all members to volunteer for either one or two jobs needed. Please check the signup sheets for more information about the different areas.

Happy Bucks-will return at the next regular meeting.

Today's Program

Brenda Staples from Meals on Wheels will be our speaker.

Welcome Brenda!
