Today's Program

District Governor Ronney Reynolds will be our guest speaker.

Last Program-August 26, 2008

Our speaker, Mayor George Garver, was introduced by Art Tragesser. Mayor Garver had a long career in education and administration.

The mayor spoke about two propositions on the ballot in November in Georgetown. One deals with road construction; the second one will benefit the park system.

Other subjects he discussed were how to handle the rapid growth of the city, redistricting of the city for council representation in 2010 due to the population shift to the west, and how to provide adequate water to the entire area.
