Quote of the Week

I don't think change is stressful. I think failure is stressful. Bob Stearns

Program Last Week (9-17)

Our speaker, Ron Swain, who is also our Assistant Governor, stressed Rotary's motto for 2013-14 which is Engage Rotary, Change Lives.

We do these things by growing membership, increasing the club's participation in many of Rotary's programs, and supporting local programs such as RYLA and Interact. The latter would serve as a pipeline for young people to become Rotarians.

Happy Bucks ($105)

Bill Miller's grandson had a successful night playing football for Cedar Park. Bill also attended his 60th high school reunion and made a generous donation. Bob Smith responded to Bill's generosity with a nice donation also.

Carolyn Holloway's grandson got married. Bob Derse attended a Rotary meeting in California, and discovered he was the oldest one there.

Bill Harries and Rich Petro are hoping that Kansas State football success will continue this weekend. Bob Deffreys is looking forward to a weekend in San Francisco although his original plans had been for Boulder and Estes Park, Co.

Don Mabry gave us a short Baylor report. Ron Ferreri made an interesting observation at a high school reunion. Doug Lowe hopes the Longhorns will rebound.

Service Above Self

Rotary Challenge

Bill Miller reported that our fund now has $7571, and hopefully the donations will continue to make this amount even higher. When this fund-raising effort is complete, our permanent fund at Chisholm Trail will be over $70,000.

Weekly Wrap Up

Jamie Mattison and John Chenoweth attended the Rotary Bi-District Reunion in San Antonio.

Correction: Carolyn Holloway donated her ad space in the Georgetown Symphony handbill to our club. President John has put the space to good use.

President John wants to increase the number of families and children that we provide for with Breakfast with Santa. This is another challenge we can meet.
