MEETS TUESDAYS, 12:00 P.M. @ SUN CITY BALLROOM
SEPTEMBER 29, 2009

Thought of the Week

Everybody needs beauty as well as bread, where nature may heal and cheer and give strength to the body and soul. John Muir

Today's Program

David Leas will present a program on how to increase our membership.

Last Program-September 22

Our speaker, Val Covey, was introduced by David Wolf. Val is the Williamson County Commissioner for Precinct Three. She gave us an update of the present road construction on Williams Drive and future projects in our area.

A question and answer session followed her presentation.

Happy Bucks ($47)

Gordon Bishop was happy to return. Bob Deffeyes was happy he is joining the club.. Many members were happy for the rain.

Others were happy to be present and to be Rotarians. Mel Owen was happy his new puppy is house broken.

Rotarians on the Move

David Leas has returned from a most rewarding teaching assignment aboard the carrier, the USS George Washington.

Ben and Jeanne Gaines took a trip to New Mexico and southern Colorado. Gordon and Karen Bishop have spent the summer on a long road trip and in San Diego.

Construction is underway on Bill and Sarah's Bryce home on E. University. Bill is hoping the work will be completed by Christmas.

The Back Pack Buddy Program

This program is now under way. The bags were delivered last Wed. to the United Methodist Church.

Thanks go to Rich Petro and Bob and Ethel Deffeyes, who volunteered last Thurs. to help fill the bags with food for the first time.

A sign-up sheet will be available for at least two members to volunteer each week.

A big Rotary thank you, Bob Weimer, for your time and effort in taking the lead on this program.

Rotary Meeting-October 6

Our club has been invited to be the lunch guests at Scott & White Hospital in Round Rock. Stephen Brown is coordinating this event.

Arts and Crafts Fair

Bill Miller gave the club an update on the plans for the Fair. Everyone's help will be needed on the weekend of Nov. 6th and 7th.

Anniversary Dinner

Adaire Wolf reported that plans are being made for our 12th annual dinner which will be held at the Georgetown Country Club on Tuesday, Oct. 20th. There will be a cocktail hour from 6 to 7. The theme will be Hawaiian so the dress will be casual. More details to follow on the cost.
