Not only is this Tulip Time late; the photos that I took have disappeared from my device. Is this the start?

But anyway, Happy New Year! It was great to see you all.

We had an informal get-together at the Bowral Bowling Club.

Some bowled; others preferred to have a quiet drink and a catch-up chat. There was lots of noise in the room. Some went to the Imperial for a casual meal...

A warning from Brian Ritson

As you know, Brian has an interest in snakes and now spiders.

He's noticed that there are many more funnel-web spiders recently. This is a product of our current weather conditions.

Funnel-webs tend to create their funnels in garden litter. As you will know, they can give a very serious if not fatal bite. So Brian's message: be aware and take care in the garden.
