Welcome

President David welcomed all to our BBQ headquarters at Bong Bong.

As the format of the meeting was fellowship and fun the pictures will tell the stories.

Last Friday Rotary was represented at the Tulip Time Thank You Presentation by Ian Langford. Our Club donated $2,000 to the Tulip Time Charity for 2017, Red Kite.

The Rose, the Tulip and the Thorn. You guess which is which!

Thursday was our Annual Bong Bong meeting. If you missed the meeting we missed you and you missed betting on the Inaugural Bong Bong Egg and Spoon Race Meet.

Bets being placed!

Getting in the mood!

The entrants in Gibraltar Oaks!

Bong Bong Cup – a free for all!

Veerle as driver, Jenny W as participant

On Friday, the troops catered for the punters at Bong Bong PR meeting. Members also assisted with marking out the parking areas, siting the car boot attendees and as a finale selling bus tickets.

The race meeting was interrupted by several heavy downpours during the thunderstorms. This did not deter Louie and Gerry (and others) from their duties as the following shows.

Announcements

The Club Christmas Party is to be held on 19th December at the Golf Club.

Rosemary Kelly is organizing hampers / raffles and would like contributions by 5th December to allow her some time to compile and wrap.

3 February the Bowral Bowling Club will be hosting a special bowls meet to honour past member Chris Benton. I am sure Roz would appreciate it if you could attend for at least some of the day.

This Tuesday Roz will be presenting an award at the Argyle Housing AGM in memory of Chris.
