October 9th – White Ribbon Program – Garry Ponder

DG Visit – 16th Oct – Joint Meeting – SH Clubs

DG Margaret will be upbeat after her District Conference so please come along and hear her pearls of wisdom. Also an opportunity to catch up with other Rotarians from Berrima and Moss Vale.

Welcome

President Lynton welcomed all including guests Rose & Eric Conley, Sue & Jim Adams, Terry & Dianne Mortensen, Jo Chalmers & Rob Uhl.

In the mid-eleventh century England was invaded by Norwegians and other Vikings in search of loot and land and good fighting competition.

There was a series of battles during the year leading up to the finals in September – a tradition which has been followed in Australia for the last hundred years or so.

Harald Hardrada (which translates from the Norse as Harald the Hard Man) using his playing name, King Harald III of Norway had a string of easy wins in the qualification finals against Northumbria and Mercia but came up against the Englishman, Harold Godwinson and his crew in the preliminary final at Stamford Bridge on this day, 25th September in 1066.

Stamford Bridge is now-a-days the home of Rosemary Kelly's favourite soccer team, Chelsea Football Club.

King Harald's team didn't go too well and he was soundly beaten by Godwinson and his boys who went on to the Grand Final at Hastings 3 weeks later.

Playing under his competition name of King Harold II of England he, of course came up against Bill from Normandy, only a Duke, playing away from home and whose team only arrived at the venue rowing in boats on the day of the final.

Well you know the story. Against all odds the Normans won the Championship and with an acceptance speech of typical Gallic humility, William made himself King, claimed the title Conqueror and moved to London where he built an oversize town house on a prime site with river views and called it The Tower.

The Rotary Club of Kensington and Chelsea was Chartered in 2017 in District 1030 from a merger of two old teams.

Its territory covers Stamford Bridge. I understand that the 39 Members including President Oleg Schkoda spend a lot of time on weekends at the stadium reliving King Harold's big win all those years ago.

The Gardens are alive to the sound of music!

Which joke have they not heard?

Tulips at their best, again.

Just 5 more days to go?

"I told you I was not good with technology!"

Two wise monkeys!

Thank you Ian L for the happy snaps.
