MONDAY'S PROGRAM

Devon Reese

Data Centers in Reno

As rapid technological growth reshapes our economy, the region is focused on ensuring that high-tech development benefits our neighborhoods without straining local resources. Led by Reno City Councilmember Devon Reese, this session explores how municipal leadership can balance innovation with responsible oversight—tackling key community priorities like infrastructure capacity, environmental sustainability, and modern zoning to build a stronger, more resilient future for Reno.

Devon proudly serves as the Ward 5 City Councilmember, having been first elected in 2020, and re-elected in 2024. A dedicated local attorney, he specializes in civil litigation at Reese Ring Velto, PLLC, where he represents labor unions, small government entities, businesses, and families. Previously, Devon held the role of Vice President and General Counsel for a regional construction company.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

- first — Is it the TRUTH?
- second — Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- third — Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- fourth — Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
