Monday's Program

Sheila Hlubacek

Drift Farm

Former Rotarian Sheila Hlubacek is speaking to us September 16 about Drift Farm, which is her flower farming and designing enterprise. Most of you know her from her 40 years of working in marketing and public relations. Her career included Q&D Construction, Clark & Sullivan and Renown.

But Sheila now has a new communication medium: Flowers. You know, when you just don't have the words? You give flowers.

Growing and designing with fresh flowers was Sheila's side hustle for nearly a decade. But turning 60 in a COVID nation inspired her to commit 100% to making the world a prettier place. So she became a flower farmer designer.

The deadlines and stress are behind her. Most days feature hard work and fresh air - what she knew as a kid growing up on a farm in Montana. She calls her enterprise Drift Farm, because like Mae West once said, "I used to be Snow White but I drifted."

Sheila's goal is to get all the good people she knows addicted to garden fresh flowers. She sells seasonal subscriptions, occasional bouquets and event flowers. She also offers bouquet tour events.

All Aboard to Calgary!

The Rotary International Convention returns for a second time to Calgary, site of the 1988 Winter Olympics and a city known for its bicycling culture and strong Indigenous heritage.

It's time to start making plans to meet up with your Rotary besties in Canada at a convention with an epic backdrop: the Rocky Mountain foothills. This gateway to the Canadian Rockies will tempt you to extend your travels. Many people visit Calgary to start or end a Western Canada rail tour.

Notes

the 4 way test

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary started with the vision of one man — Paul Harris. The Chicago attorney formed the Rotary Club of Chicago on 23 February 1905, so professionals with diverse backgrounds could exchange ideas, form meaningful, lifelong friendships, and give back to their communities.
