satisfaction and joy as Club President. She enjoyed it so much she has been Club President x3.

Within Rotary District 5190 Stacy has served as Vocational Chair 2012-15 & 2019-22, Facebook Chair 2013-present, Assistant Governor Area 5 2017-2020, Co-Conference Chair 2017, partner to Past District 5180 Governor Ray Ward 2019-20, Chair for Vibrant Club Workshop, facilitator for RLI, and a few other positions.

Stacy is a proud member of the Bequest Society, Paul Harris Society, Polio Plus Society, she is a Paul Harris +8, Major Donor and member of District 5190 Triple Crown.

Stacy's passion in Rotary is Vocational Service, which is also the reason she chose Rotary. Rotary International is the only non-profit in the world that recognizes Vocational Service and places value each members classification.

Stacy was born, raised and still lives in Grass Valley CA. She owns and operates The Master Technicians, Inc. & Roger's Automotive Repair, Inc., both located in Auburn CA. In her profession, Stacy has received awards for her pioneering/mentorship with women in the Automotive repair field and was the 2013-14 Auburn Journals Business Woman of The Year.

Stacy and her life partner, Brian Milhous, often spend time working outdoors, cooking, listening to music or just enjoying life with lots of laughter.

Stacy says the Rotarians have touched her heart in the selfless giving of their time, treasures, and talents. Service Above Self is in every action she sees Rotarians doing.

Famous Rotarians by Vocation

Source: Rotary District 5190 Newsletter
Shauna Gaines, Editor

What do Colonel Harland Sanders (founder of KFC), Charles Walgreen, Jr. (of Walgreens Pharmacy), and Joyce Hall (founder of Hallmark Cards) have in common? Yes, they were famous business leaders. But they were also Rotarians! Rotary emphasizes the importance of its members' vocations -- their businesses, occupations, and professions -- and of having a diversity of vocations (classifications) in each Rotary club. This will be the first in a series of articles featuring famous Rotarians as grouped by their vocations, starting with business leaders:

- Raymond F. Firestone, Rotary Club of Akron, OH, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.
- Joyce C. Hall, Rotary Club of Kansas City, MO, Founder of Hallmark Cards
- Konosuke Matsushita, Rotary Club of Osaka, Japan, President, Matsushita Electric Co.
- J.C. Penney, Rotary Club of New York, NY, Founder of J.C. Penney stores
- Max Cointreau, Rotary Club of Paris, France, Owner, Cointreau liquor enterprise
- Heinrich Nordhoff, Rotary Club of Braunschweig, Germany, President, Volkswagen
- Dr. Charles H. Mayo, Rotary Club of Rochester, MN, Co-founder of Mayo Clinic
- Reiji Hattori, Rotary Club of Tokyo Ginza, Japan, Chairman, Seiko
- Leopoldo Pirelli, Rotary Club of Milano President, Pirelli Tire Co. Italy
- "Colonel" Harland Sanders, Rotary Club of Jeffersonville, IN, Founder, Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC)

- Claude Vuitton, Rotary Club of Paris-Nord, France, Owner, Vuitton luggage enterprise
- Charles R. Walgreen, Jr. Rotary Club of Chicago, IL, Chairman of the board of the Walgreen Drug Company
- Sam Walton, Rotary Club of Bentonville, AK, Founder of Walmart

In focusing on a few of the above Rotarians, Harland (Colonel) Sanders became an active Rotarian in 1919 as a founding member of the Rotary Club of Jeffersonville, Indiana, at the age of 29. After that he joined the Rotary Club of Corbin, Kentucky, and then the Rotary Club of Shelbyville, Kentucky, and was an active member until his death in 1980.

Charles Walgreen promoted the 4-Way Test in his business, which officially adopted the Test in 1955 as part of "the Walgreen Way." And during the Great Depression, the "1930 Joyce Hall Prosperity Plan" was embraced and promoted by Rotary Clubs throughout the country. Some newspapers credited Hall and his plan with aiding the country's eventual economic recovery.

Michael Schulz from Truckee Meadows Community College was our speaker at our last meeting.

Notes

No challenge is too big for us

For more than a century, Rotarians have bridged cultures and connected continents. We champion peace, fight illiteracy and poverty, help people get access to clean water and sanitation, and fight disease. Our newest cause is to protect our planet and its resources.

Be an encourager.
(The world has plenty of critics already)

the 4 way test

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary started with the vision of one man — Paul Harris. The Chicago attorney formed the Rotary Club of Chicago on 23 February 1905, so professionals with diverse backgrounds could exchange ideas, form meaningful, lifelong friendships, and give back to their communities.
