Club News from 4/8/2019

Greeter – Don Daniels and Jonathan Walker (new member); Pledge – Anita Daniels; Thought for the Day by Eric Trygg; Visiting Rotarians by Tim McCall; Sergeant-at Arms Assistant was Steve Sarantopoulos; Spoke Notes – Judy Bagley; Photographers: Fred Claessens and Ron Parks; Speaker's Assistant – Team Captain Kathleen Shaffer; Audio Visual – Steve Sarantopoulos.

We had no visiting Rotarians, but several guests: Mike Steele, CHP officer introduced by Bob Long; Mike will be helping coordinate the Gold Country Challenge road safety; Kimala DeSena introduced her assistant, Kari Stehmeyer, Ass't Scholarship Coordinator at NUHS; Jacob from the Salvation Army introduced by Cristian Sibaja; Jacob is his right hand assistant. Also attending was our Guest Speaker, Dan Foxx of Project H.E.A.R.T and Kathleen, who is the Women's Team Coordinator for the organization.

Announcements and Fines:

- All members are requested to sign up for various jobs (more than one) for the Gold Country Challenge to be held June 1ST; jobs start as early as now and then Wednesday of the week of the event. It is our second major fundraiser and all members, family, friends are needed to pull this off. If you didn't sign up or need to sign up for more things, contact Bob Long!
- The Area Speech Contest was held last Thursday, and a very inspiring candidate will move forward to the District Conference competition.
- The Club Leadership Assembly was held in Reno on Saturday and lightly attended by our club with five members in attendance.
- Anita Daniels announced that Jerry Trammell and his daughter were showing a stallion at a horse show in Seattle, WA and won Grand Champion! Jerry was awarded a $75 fine for this accomplishment!

Speaker was Dan Foxx, a past President of Project H.E.A.R.T (Holding Excellence Above Relapse Team), who told us about this group that helps people in recovery over and above the typical AA etc. groups, but rather accepts them for who they are and reach out and help them establish friends and a life for themselves thru being their friend, mentoring them, listening to them, doing things with them. He introduced Kathleen Foxx who is the women's team coordinator. There are both men and women's groups that meet separately, weekly and all are welcome – those in need or those wanting to help and befriend a person recovering. They often do group outings like cutting wood to help the elderly; a fishing trip to Fuller Lake just to sit, fish, talk and get to know one and other. The men's group meets at the Inter Faith Food Ministry building and the women's group meets at Calvary Bible Church. They share stories, assign mentors and just support one and other. Anyone interested is welcome to partake.

Meeting adjourned with the raffle and the 4 Way Test –

Rod Fivelstad drew a white marble, so sad.....
