Meeting Notes for March 21, 2022

Sandra Barrington led the pledge and the in-person meeting began at the Wild Eye Pub. First order of business was tallying up the total donations for Shelter Box to be used for the people of Ukraine. As of this time, the total is $2,500 and counting.

Guests included: Gina Will, Assistant Auditor-Controller of Nevada County, and John Spencer

Jon Byerrum gave a re-cap of the upcoming Lithium battery recycling program along with the plastic bag program

District Governor Anita Daniels promoted the District Conference coming up the last weekend of April in South Lake Tahoe at Harrah's. The conference is in need of Sergeant-at-Arms, something you might consider if you plan on attending the conference.

Fines included $20 to Bob Long for praising his grandson's baseball skills. He pitched 2 innings, 8 strike-outs, no walks, no runs! Ed Pinto also kicked in $20, and $5 was assessed to any member whose last name started with letters M-R

A fun time was had by all attending the March 28 afternoon social held at Prosperity Lanes in GV. There was a great group of bowlers (notice I didn't say a group of great bowlers) along with a wildly enthusiastic spectator section. Two teams competed against each other, with the high-scoring male & female on each team coming back for a play-off on April 11. Monica and Andrew Jackson brought along their young son who served as a massive distraction for those who have obviously been cooped up at home for far too long! Great strategy, Andrew! All are welcome to join in the fun at noon on April 11 at Prosperity Lanes. Come for the fun, stay for the lunch. They serve the best French fries!
