Club News from 4/1/2019

Thanks Team April. Anita Daniels, Eric Trygg, Susan Fivelstad, Judy Bagley, Ken Holbrooke, Christian Eggleton, Kathleen Shaffer

Marcia Salter, the RYE club coordinator, introduced Maelle DuBois, our exchange student who celebrated her 19th birthday today. She will be returning home to Le Locle, Switzerland in June. Le Locle is part of the watch making capital in the country and is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The houses have big windows so people can work at home making watches. Skiers have much to choose from in the Swiss Alps. For alpine and nordic skiers there are 150 ski resorts and lots of mountains. She misses the Swiss cheeses and chocolate. She is ready for college, and will surely do well since she is quite accomplished. She speaks 4 languages which is necessary since the Swiss speak German, Italian, French and English. Good luck, Maelle.

Members should remember to sign up for the Rotary District Conference - the 4 Way Fest May 17-19th in Reno at the Peppermill.

We honored our Lyman Gilmore Students of the Month who are chosen by teachers and staff for their outstanding works and deeds. Principal Jay Brose introduced Serenity Navo, 5th grade, is described as a Superstar. Jodie Watkins, is a Superstar reader and writer. Jaycina
