Meeting Notes from 8/17/15

President Bob opened the Meeting at 12:15 followed by Kathy Egenes leading us in the pledge to our flag. Monty East had a great thought of the day for us and Bob Aydelott was the greeter.

Announcements:

- Nate Beason was our visiting Rotarian and Anita's guest Curtis Price of Mountain Valley Property Management joined us for lunch.
- Bob Long requested marketing help with our upcoming vaccine clinic for seniors.
- Destruction Derby was a big success
- Nov. 1 is our 2nd annual Turkey shoot
- Sid Salcido told us the Salvation Army "Kettle Kick Off" will be Nov. 19 at Eskaton at 7:30 a.m.

Pat Ward walked us thru the new area wide business and professional services directory available on our club website.

Steve Spiller announced an opportunity for training for anyone interested in becoming a volunteer counselor at an upcoming REGLE camp session

Monty East confessed cruising the Danube for 2 weeks

moment with one of our newest members, Brandon Davis.

Speakers:

Aug 24 Joanna Robinson—Hospitality House
Homelessness in Western Nevada County

Dates to Remember:

Aug 21 River Cats Game—Meet 4:30 p.m. KMart
Sept 7 DARK—Labor Day
Sept 28 Area 4 Joint Meeting at National Hotel 5:00 p.m.

Lt. Alex Gammelgard was our speaker for the day from the GVPD. What a great guy that has moved up rapidly through the department to Lieutenant.

Alex grew up in Nevada County and went from a patrol officer to a detective for 4 years before being promoted to Sargent then Lieutenant.

He's also a Rotarian in the 49er club.

Alex had a great talk and really stressed how important communication is with the public. With people being more active it really makes a difference in solving and sometimes detouring crime.

Tom Stanley drew a white marble.

Notes from President Bob

Today is a more somber note from me. I was distressed this morning to learn that Morgan Stoltz is moving from our hospital to Hospice care. We need to keep him in our thoughts and prayers. Visiting is limited so prayers will do more good.

Also I learned that Scott Browne suffered a heart attack, at home, Wednesday morning. He was transferred to Mercy General where they discovered three occluded coronary arteries. He will be undergoing bypass surgery on Friday morning. Again thoughts and prayers are in order. I will keep you informed about his recovery.
