Meeting Notes for March 30, 2015

Our meeting of March 30th was commenced with Steve Spiller presiding as President, Monty East was our greeter, Anita Daniels led the pledge, Ray Enneking gave the Thought of the Day and Monty East assisted our Sergeant at Arms, Ken Holbrook.

There were no visiting Rotarians for Steve Sauer to introduce, however there were several guests.

- Rotarian Bob Long introduced his guest, Ken Cheng, who is past president of the club in Torrance, CA although he has recently moved here from Angel Fire, New Mexico.
- Rotarian Eric Trygg introduced his nephew, Charles, who is attending Cal State Long Beach.
- Rotarian Ken Holbrook introduced Cecily Dewing who has moved here from the Bay Area and has family ties to Rotary.

Announcements:

- Bob Long – still need “go-fors” to drive trucks and pick up stuff for the Gold Country Challenge event this May. He also needs volunteers to mark the route on Friday before the event, he needs both drivers and people to hop out of the truck and mark the route. Bob also talked about the Shots for Tots project that we are supporting in August of this year.
- Steve Sarantopoulos – announced Rotary at Work day will be Saturday, April 25th at the Habitat for Humanity Heritage Oaks site. All five Rotary clubs in our area are participating in this day of service. Bring your weed eaters!
- Steve Spiller – the area speech contest is Tuesday, April 7th at the Grass Valley Methodist Church. The club voted that this meeting will not replace our regular meeting on Monday, April 6th.
- Anita Daniels – encouraged us to sign up for the District Assembly on April 11 at the Atlantis Resort.

Confessions:

- Scott Spencer confessed the celebration of his 28th wedding anniversary and was fined $25.

Dates to Remember:

- Apr 11, 2015 District Assembly
- Apr 25, 2015 Rotary at Work Day
- May 09, 2015 2nd annual Bike Ride Challenge

- Steve Spiller squeezed in another announcement recognizing Judy Bagley for compiling Casino Night data into a spread sheet. We cleared $18,763 for this year's Casino Night fundraiser last month, great job, everyone!
- Kelly Quinn bought a new car, a Malibu, but since he was already a bell ringer, he gave the fine to Ken Holbrook. But Ken was also a bell ringer so the fine went to Tom Stanley in the amount of $40.
- Kathy Egenes gave a shout out to Don Daniels for rescuing Ron and Marley when their truck broke down. This example of “service above self” was truly appreciated. Also Kathy confessed that her son, Jared, got a new job at Fox News!
- Bob Long brought to light that a local winery (he didn't mention any names directly, but it was evident that it was the Nevada City Winery run by our very own Wyn Spiller) was in the newspaper for winning various awards for their wines. He offered a “happy 5” for the Spillers, Steve Spiller took the fine to be a bell ringer.

During the meeting, president Steve inducted our newest member, Jerri Glover, into the club. Her sponsor is Kathy Egenes. She received her red badge, rotary pin, and a mentor, Anita Daniels.

President Steve spoke about the four way test, the four objects of Rotary, and Rotary's code of ethics. He gave each table a sample ethics problem that we were to discuss and come up with possible solutions that are in line with our four way test.

Kris Stepanian winning the ticket. She drew a white marble and then led us in the four way test.
