Meeting Notes for November 24, 2014

Monday November 24th, the bell did not ring. President Steve was bell-less and gavel-less! He stepped up to the microphone but it was dead! Some commented that the ghost of the Holbrook had followed us to the Holiday Inn. The Sargent of Arms was advised that the flag was on the wrong side!

Anita Daniels led us in the pledge, followed by Judge Bob who read President George Washington's Thanksgiving Proclamation dated 1789, recommending to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer. Greeters were Eric Fredrickson and Monte East. Visiting Rotarians were Nate Beason and Allison Swartzendruber. Terry Ferguson had her red badge replaced.

The Foundation dinner was successful with the following Grass Valley Rotarians receiving Paul Harris awards: Don Daniels +2, Judy Hess +3, Pat Ward +1, Kathy Egenes +2, Dave Peeler +1, Dick Panzica 1, Marcia Salter +1, and Ralph Andersson +3. A fireside chat for Dec. 4 will be postponed until January at Nevada City Winery. This is for old and new members to learn about rotary.

Kyle announced the Christmas party is to be held at Ken and Cheryl's house from 6:30 to 9:30 on Dec. 13th. According to Cheryl no help will be needed for setup but will be for cleanup the next morning. Kyle announced that the club would provide turkey and beef. Rotarians are to bring appetizers, salad, dessert or a main dish. John ask what is a main dish! Kyle explained a casserole or meatballs are considered a main dish.

The Voter boys are all pumped up for Lodi on Friday night. Once they win, John will contribute $50 and bring his boys to a meeting! (WooHoo! Bear River was victorious over Colfax 28-17)

Sid Salcido asked for volunteers to ring the bell for Salvation Army. Marcus Moore will be in charge of scheduling two-hour shifts at the Brunswick Safeway store. Sign up so we can meet our annual challenge!

Allison introduced her new boss and our speaker for the day, Don Langford, the general manager of KNCO and Star 84 who she said has a huge history in radio back to the time of dinosaurs. He announced his first baseball game from ticker tapes!

Ken Holbrook had the lucky ticket but not so lucky after all since he failed to pick that lucky black marble.

Don Daniels led us in the four-way test. President Steve announced we will meet next week at the Holiday Inn and then closed the meeting without the bell!
