Meeting Highlights 12/3/18

Our room at the Wild Eye Pub began filling early. There were guys in red shirts with Trombones, and an influx of District 5190 leaders including a number of past District Governors. What's up? Did they all come to see Don Daniels and Larry Faller and their "Bone Bunch?" We were also beginning to see parents and students of the month. Looks like we were in for a busy first meeting of December.

Kris Stepanian called the meeting to order. Kelly Quinn led the flag salute. Kim Zwick, our December team leader, gave one of the shortest Thoughts for the Day on record and the rest of the December team was recognized. Patty Spencer-Ingram had sore hands from greeting everyone in the crowd. Ken Holbrook took care of set up as usual. Tom Stanley assisted with break down, Fred and Ron with cameras, Pat Ward at the AV controls, and yours truly Rod Fivelstad, on Spoke Notes.

The list of visiting Rotarians was impressive, Past District Governor and past RI Director and Rotary International VP Jerry Hall, and PDG and Rotary Director Steve Snyder were joined by other PDG's including Dave Bianchi, Dave Denny, John Sullivan, Vicki Puliz, current DG Tina Spencer-Mulhern, we of course, already have two PDGs in our club who were also at the meeting, Wyn Spiller and Chuck Elizondo.

Our program started with the "Bone Bunch." The 8 Trombone ensemble opened with several holiday tunes, getting us into the December Holiday Spirit.

Next up were our students of the month for November from Lyman Gilmore School. This month the recipients were Lilly-Ann (gr 5), Ava (gr 6), Ellie (gr 7), and Amelia and Hannah (gr 8).
