Announcements:

- $500 in funds have been donated to Salvation Army holiday fund so far. Still need gift donations
- Kathleen Shaffer thanked the volunteers for helping at the North Star work party over the weekend – off to a great start, and the photo album is on Club Runner
- Don Daniels reminded everyone that the Music Contest will be on 2/11/19 and the Speech Contest will be on 3/11/19
- Marcia Salter let us know that progress is being made on the coat collection for NU Interact club and that she is still looking for a new host family (or two) for our visiting student, Maelle – probably Jan-Mar, then April to the end of her stay

Fines:

- John Peplowski was fined $10, and became a bell-ringer, after returning from a hunting trip with his grandson

Club Focus – Seth Leishman – Casino Night 2019 Event Chair:

- Theme: Woodstock Again – at the Nevada County Fairgrounds main building
- Great slideshow of “Real Woodstock” from 1969 – over 500,000 people attended for Peace, Love, Music and Mud
- Members encouraged to pick-up posters to display and give to others to display
- This is our biggest fundraiser (about $25,000 per year) to fund everything else we do for our community
- The car club has been invited back to be “décor” for the event

- Sign-up list was distributed, committee chairs shared what's needed
- Members need to collect at least $100 of donated items for Silent Auction and Raffle
- Kathy Egenes distributed paper copies of Silent Auction letters and forms for ALL members to use when gathering auction and raffle items. Please, drop-off all items no later than 1/21/19 at the Old Post Office building (where Scott Browne and Connie Stone's offices are)
