Meeting Notes

November 25, 2013

Meeting opened with the Pledge and Thought for the Day. President Steve requested all pay their bills since we are currently low on funds. The Christmas party will be 12/14. Invitations will be sent.

Jon Byerrum was awarded an honorary Paul Harris Fellow, plus 4 additional Paul Harris's were announced.

Alison Swartzendruber was visiting from the Nevada County South club.

Nuria Coromina attended. She is our Rotary Exchange student from Spain.

We need all your help for the Salvation Army collection at Kmart. Come on out and ring the bell.

Monte East received a call that Bill Shultz is in the hospital in Reno, on a ventilator.

Confessions:

Blake Smith had baby number 4, a girl, his 4th girl. He is starting a perpetual wedding fund. Her name is Adilee Rose.

Lee Osnas was in Cambodia for three weeks teaching children how to brush their teeth. He also got to visit his daughter and plans on returning in the spring.

Pat Ward announced Rotary night with the Sacramento Kings in January. Stay tuned. 20% of ticket price will be donated to Polio Plus. Our grant for Lyman Gilmore was accepted and they will received $1000 from us to assist in payment for the groundperson's position. Janet Horowitz, Director of Special Ed and and Chris Roberts, the Principal, both from Lyman Gilmore, were at our meeting and grateful for the grant funds. They also introduced the Guest Speaker, Izzy Toinsky.

Izzy is a juggler, and works with children identified as challenged. Through juggling, these children learn to set a goal, work to obtain the goal, and finally, achieve success. They in turn, learn how to work this strategy into all parts of their lives obtaining a new vision of and for themselves. This has been a very successful program and they were hoping they could earn $600 more from our club to assist with Mr. Toinsky's salary. Rotarians present were asked to donate $15 each. The meeting ended with the 4 way test.
