Meeting Notes for December 1, 2014

Greeter: Don Daniels; Pledge: Anita Daniels
Thought: Monty East; Sgt. At Arms: Ken Holbrook
Spoke Notes: Kris Stepanian; Photographer: Fred Claussens
Speaker Assistant: Steve Spiller

Visitor was Dave Williams, of Williams Stationary, who was acknowledged for donating student of the month gifts every month.

John Voter became a bell ringer with the announcement of his sons' big win. He told the story of how his younger son gave words of encouragement and wisdom (that he learned from his Dad, no doubt) to help inspire his teammates to believe in themselves. This is the 2nd win in 25 years for Bear River. President Steve shared with the club how we plan on recognizing these fine young athletes at a meeting in January 2015.

Doug McDonald, assistant district governor, presented the club with a $2,000 grant for Union Hill School project – which is the maximum available to each club. He also presented Steve Sarantopolous with a pin for Rotary Leadership Institute completion.

Principal Chris Roberts introduced this month's Students of the Month from Lyman Gilmore Middle School.
