Meeting Notes

Spoke Notes 1/25/16 Submitted by Rod Fivelstad

It was only January 25, and President Bob has been to how many meetings in the New Year? Does it rhyme with hero? There may have been a President Bob sighting early in the month, but nobody was really sure. Anyway, President Elect Trygg called the meeting to order and we moved through our usual opening activities. Kyle greeted, Tom pledged, Susan thoughted, Rod Spoked, Fred photoed, and Ken Sargented with the help of Tom Stanley and Don Daniels.

- We got an update on the Bike Challenge on May 14. The next committee meeting will be Feb. 9
- Visiting Rotarian Lindy Beatie was introduced and she challenged us to field a bowling team for the Bowling for Kids event. We also had two visiting Rotarians from Roseville Teri Glasky and Fred Cray.
- Tim's Guest Eric Aanestad was introduced.
- We welcomed Ralph Andersson back to the fold from a leave of absence.
- Rotarian Sid Salcedo presented the club with a certificate and big thank you for our help and participation in bell ringing and family adoptions during Christmas for the Salvation Army. Our bell ringers collected over $1000 and more than 40 kids received Christmas toys and clothing donated from members of our club.

Ken Holbrook filled in as our speaker and enthusiastically presented a history on the Golden Center Freeway which was built in the late 60's, including maps and photos of the pre-freeway era.

For the raffle Anita jumped up with the winning ticket, which she declared actually belonged to Monty East. Anita then drew out...the BLACK marble. Congratulations Monty, I am sure some of your earnings will be returned to the club for your early departure.
