Meeting Highlights 7/9/18

Welcome to President Kris's first meeting and her new Presidential year. Kris was so eager that she got her year started 8 minutes early at 12:07. That's enthusiasm!

Pat Ward led us in the pledge. Larry McGrath shared an inspirational "thought for the day," and Wyn Spiller listed the visiting Rotarians, which combined with the guests of Rotarians were way too numerous to mention here (obviously, President Kris draws a large crowd). Of special note, Patti Ingram-Spencer, a wonderful past member of our club, was among the throng. Let's hope she'll be back.

President Kris shared a list of upcoming events. This Monday we will be hosting the District Governor, Tina Spencer-Mulhern. August 24th is the Rivercat's outing, and July 17th at 5:30 will be the farewell party for Rotarian extraordinary Barbara Ross at Western Gateway Park. And finally, Wyn Spiller announced an international service committee meeting on July 23 after the regular meeting.

Bob Lenhard confessed a trip to South Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee, and paid $20.00 for his efforts. Ron Parks advised his grandson and us to "Do as he says and not as he does," and informed us that all politicians are crooks (tongue in cheek, of course).

Pat Ward inducted our first corporate member, Western Sierra Medical Clinic. New members include Phil Nowak and Andy Harris. Cheryl Rubin is the alternate representative with CEO Scott McFarland as a long time member of our club.

We also inducted new members Vivian Tipton (Hospice of the Foothills) and Heather Thorpe (Edward Jones). Welcome to the club! Chris Stapleton received his blue badge.

Pat Ward gave an eloquent introduction for our guest, Dr. Barry Turner. Barry is a long time Rotarian and a past presenter to our club. He shared the wonderful work being done by "Smiles without Borders." Our club is participating in this impactful project at the Esenada Health Clinic that changes numerous lives by repairing cleft palates.

And last but not least, Bob Long, aka, the Big Spoke, drew the lucky number but not the lucky marble to finish the program. All in all, a very successful first meeting for our new leader, President Kris!
