tional judge for cheeses throughout the world. She judged French cheese tasting. She mentioned that the reason we are having problems with international cheeses is because they use wood in the aging process, and America believes that is not safe due to bacteria. It takes at least 60 days to age raw milk cheese. She gave tips on storing cheese at home. She said to wrap it in paper. Then put in a loose plastic bag in the veggie bin so it can breathe. She also said that by the time it becomes cheese, it no longer has lactose. They have a Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/wheywardgirlcreamery/> where you can go online and peruse the classes they offer and also special cheeses they may have or be offering. You can't buy happiness but you can buy cheese.
