Club News from 7/1/2019

It's been a busy week in Rotary. This past Monday evening our club held a demotion for President Kris and her board. She acknowledged all of her team who helped to make this past year so successful. She also recognized three extraordinary Rotarians. The Service Above Self award went to Ken Holbrook, the Silent Rotarian to Tom Stanley and the Rotarian of the Year to Kathleen Shaffer.

The committee also brought back the game show "Name That Tune". Contestants Eric Fredrickson, Seth Leishman and Marcia Salter took on the music icon Kris Stepanian and cleaned her clock! Of course there was a little bit of pre-disclosure of facts to most of the contestants, not including Kris. She was able to redeem herself in the end by singing "Happy Days are Here Again".

Kim Zwick also presented a plaque from Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital Foundation in recognition of our club's generous contribution to the Emergency Room renovation project.

A BIG Thank You to Tom Stanley for a delicious dinner!

Then on Thursday, July 4, Rotarians from all 5 area clubs walked the parade in downtown Grass Valley.
