Guests: Auburn Honda - Dave Jones, Steve Belch of the Philadelphia Project

Congratulations to Grace, Tia, Carley and Carlos - the Lyman Gilmore Students of the Month
President Kris, a Lyman Gilmore alum, talked about how great the school was in creating her interest in drama and music.

The Gold Country Challenge Report from Bob Long. It was a big success with 158 riders and 16 on the gravel ride. Thanks to all of the volunteers from start to finish. Rotarians at work were Janet Ryan, Pat Ward, Chris Parks, Kathleen Shaffer, Monty East, Eric Trygg and Seth Leishman at a very early registration, Kathy Egenes, the chef, Jonathon Long secured the permits, Marcia Salter coordinator of the supplies, Monica helped the riders, Kyle getting the signs, and everyone who worked the rest stops, helped set up - take down, and special thanks to Jessie who worked the beverage bar. The sponsorships totaled $9300, which was a new record. Dave Jones of Auburn Honda donated the bike and drew the winning ticket for Jamie Ricks of Rocklin. The proceeds will help fund this year's contribution to the Rotary Room in the ER at SNMH. Thanks too, to the Ham Radio Operators for keeping communication open around the routes.

John Peplowski still needs drivers to transport the RYLA students to the camp in Portola. Please contact John if you can help.

The program speaker was Rotarian Dan Bibelheimer, MD, of the Rotary supported Filadelfia Hospital Project in Tijuana, Mexico. He was accompanied by Steve Belch of the 49er Rotary. The project will receive support of $1000 from our club. Dr. Bibelheimer and 4 other doctors, including Steve Belch formed the Luke Med Foundation to help the hospital. They soon discovered they could use and needed a Rotary Global Grant. With the help of Wyn Spill-

Upcoming Programs:

6/10 Bob Long - Fire Safe Council - fire safety prep

Dates to Remember:

er the grant became a reality and is its final stages of approval. This will help them provide equipment, obstetric services, dental, and outpatient services. They will purchase any new medical equipment in Mexico to keep the warranties valid.

The raffle pot continues to grow. Thanks Don, for pulling a white marble!

The meeting adjourned at 1:15 with the Four Way Test
