Demotion of President Scott Browne

We all missed Eric Trygg and hope for his speedy return.

First, the names were flying fast and furious, so if I missed anyone I am sorry.

Our guests were: Mary Anne and Scott Davis, Dave Walker, Wendy and Charlie Cain, Heather Thorpe and Jim Belluomini, Andrea Eggleton (and their dog Kate), Cheryl Rellstab, Maryann Newnan, Scott Gassaway, Ron Egenes, Judy East, Tim Salter, Jesse Peeler, Carol Peplowski, Mary Grayeb, Ellie Claessens, Leslie Peek, Theresa Quinn, Paula, Bob, and Jerilyn.

Seth Leishman and Blake Smith did a wonderful, if somewhat wet, skit. And the dinner was stellar, as usual!

And now, for my personal reflection on the year: Another year, another demotion. So the cycle goes. We have all had an incredible year individually with new spouses, new arrivals, new members, some sad goodbyes, but our year has been bountiful.

We have always had an energy, a current if you will, that makes our club as special and as worthwhile as it is. To me, it seemed that we have had many irons in the fire and many balls in the air. This year, the pancakes came off the griddle golden and tasty. The balls skipped and floated through the air seemingly unsupported by the juggler's skill.

We have knowingly or unknowingly achieved what we have always aimed for; "Service above Self," and people recognized that something great was happening at Grass Valley Rotary Club!
