Announcements:

- Dick Panzica went in for some routine stents. He'll be up and back at it shortly. Nothing to worry about.
- Don & Anita, among others, were Sergeant at Arms for the District Conference
- John Voter received his Paul Harris +2 award – presented by Pres. Eric
- Sid thanked the club for donating a brand new washer & dryer with 5 year warranty from Hills Flat to the Manzanita House
- Steve – Gave shout out to whole club for involvement in bike event and district conference
- Pat Ward mentioned that he was able to secure and deliver a large box of books to the hospital foundation's event in the name of the club.
- Bob Long: Gave out several certificates to some 1st time helpers of the bike event. Bob also thanked the many people involved in making that event such a success.
- Bob also announced Demotion Party will be at Condon Park on June 26th at 5:30pm
- President Eric talked about the many awards and recognition our club received at District Conference this last weekend. Best Membership Growth, Membership Service, Best Club Bulletin (Big Thanks to Kathy!), Best Club Website, Vocational Service, and Multi Club Service Project. We also received 8 certificates – see Eric for the list.
- Steve Spiller introduced and went through the wonderful award his wife, Wyn, received at Conference. Citation of Merit for service to the foundation.

Tom Stanley had the winning ticket, but pulled a white marble. Scott Brown led the club in the 4-way test. The meeting adjourned at 1:15 p.m.
