June is Rotary Fellowships Month

Check out some of the many fellowships available

Work has been underway for many weeks, preparing for the Gold Country Challenge on June 11, 2022 at the Nevada County Fairgrounds and beyond. All hands on deck for this major fundraiser. It's 5 days and counting!

May Meeting Highlights:

5-2-22 Speaker Ray Ward, Rotarian and Past District Governor 2019-2020 for 5180. He spoke on inclusion and diversity. Be willing to engage people in conversation and live by the Four Way Test.

8 students from Lyman Gilmore Middle School were honored.

5-9-22 Speaker Rich Keene, GV Rotarian and Attorney. Rich spoke on Ethics and borrowed from the great thinkers thru history. The Four Way Test made an appearance in this presentation, as well.

5-16-22 Our speaker today was the Area 4 Rotary Speech contestant, Ariana Dragasett.

5-23-22 This was a work day at the Salvation Army. Many GV Rotarians showed up to help organize a clothing closet at the church. Captain McCort and his team were most appreciative of our help and served us lunch at the conclusion of the day.

Some of the memorable moments of the month:

- Paul Harris pins were awarded to many
- Polio Plus certificates awarded to many
- Lindy Beatie is grateful for $1,000 raised by interactors for shelter box.
- Tom Stanley bought a new truck
- Larry Faller is having his land masticated
- Bob Long's grandson has a scholarship to Boise State
- Rod & Susan are leaving on a road trip to the convention
- Kris Stepanian's son is heading out on a road trip
