MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The guest speaker was Daryl Grigsby, a local author and a board member of Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital and a member of Nevada County's Color Me Human organization.

Mr. Grigsby has been a member of our community for 6 years having moved from San Luis Obispo. Mr. Grigsby was drawn to Nevada County by the Yuba River and the art and culture of the area. Mr. Grigsby recited several instances where people of color have left Nevada County due to bullying in schools, health care and other businesses. After Mr. Grigsby spoke, several club members added to Mr. Grigsby's comment by sighting similar unfortunate occurrences.

KVMR Host Brian Buckley shares (below) an exploration of the life experiences of Daryl Grigsby, a retired public works professional, author, theologian and Board President of Color Me Human in Nevada County.
