I am a member of Rotary. Rotary is made up of community leaders taking action to improve our communities. Currently we are fundraising to help the victims of the devastating Camp Fire in California.

Please consider making a tax-deductible donation using this link. <https://givingtrail.org/campaigns/200040/rotary-district-5190-emergency-fire-relief>

If you're at that point in life where you want to give back and do it with a great group of people, give me a call. Rotary is always looking for dedicated people who want to make a difference. I would be happy to have you as my guest to one of our meetings.

Rotarians Bob Long, Tim McCall and Larry Faller cooked an early Thanksgiving dinner for the folks at the Women of Worth house

Speaker: David Kline – Overcoming obstacles. New autobiography titled Walk By Faith available on Amazon, etc. David discussed challenges he faced when paralyzed Senior year of High School at Nevada Union and challenges after as he had caregivers that were great and others that were not. He got his teaching credential and taught at NU for 17 years as well JV soccer coach for 4 years.

Rod Fivelstad had winning raffle ticket and pulled white marble.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON ROTARY AND THE CAMP FIRE

On behalf of District Governor Tina:

Dear Rotarians in District 5190:

Our fellow Rotarians in District 5160, which include the towns of Paradise and Chico, California, are dealing with the devastation of California's largest, most destructive, and deadly wildfire known as the Camp Fire.

As your District Governor, I have been in contact with District Governor Jon Dwyer 5160. We have set a goal to raise $100,000.00 in emergency relief funds. We need your help!
