Meeting Highlights November 3, 2014

President Steve called the meeting to order. Ralph Andersson led us in the Pledge, and Kathy Egenes' thought for the day took us back to Arthur Krump who began the Rotary Foundation in 1916. Kathy also introduced visiting Rotarians.

Rod Fivelstad passed around the Foundation dinner sign-up sheet. The dinner will be on Thursday, November 20 at 5:30 for social hour and 6:30 for dinner. We have several members who have gotten their first or an additional PHF this year. Come to the dinner to honor their generosity and support our foundation. We will be dark on November 17. The dinner will count as the week's meeting. Steve Sauer and Rich Toothman described the ear-splitting fun at the Trap Shoot. Apparently, President Steve and novice shooters Ray Enneking and Scott Brown killed enough clay pigeons to feed a clay army. Anita Daniels announced that the annual book give-away was a huge success with dozens of miniature goblins and princesses trotting off happily with books in hand.

Chris Roberts, Principal of Lyman Gilmore, introduced the four Students of the Month. Judy Hess shared her adventures on a cruise around the Mediterranean complete with an assist in rescuing a boatload of stranded refugees. Kyle Daugherty announced that this year's Christmas party will be held on December 13 at Ken Holbrook's house. A sign-up sheet will be appearing soon.

Rod Fivelstad led off the Foundation drive by describing some of the many wonderful programs supported by our Foundation and explained how the foundation leverages our donations to support these programs.

Jon Byerrum followed with a lopsided contest pitting the entire club against the Spillers in a test of Rotary knowledge.

The club eked out a narrow victory, but it was later decided by an independent Rotary panel that the Spillers' questions were harder than those asked of the general membership. The club is appealing the decision. Jon then led the club in the fund drive. The generosity and Rotary spirit of our club was evident once again as over $9,000 was raised in a matter of minutes. Because we have "match money" still available and a ways to go before we reach our goal, there will be future opportunities to support our foundation.

And lastly, Bob Lenhard drew the white marble to bring the meeting to a close.
