President Seth and his entourage were on the road this week but he managed to run the ZOOM meeting via the passenger seat of his tour bus. He was hoping to be at the San Diego Zoo on Tuesday visiting with the sloths for National Sloth Day. He fined himself $50. Tim McCall led the pledge and Bob Long read a quote by Tony Robbins for the Thought for the Day. "It is in your moments of decision that your destiny is shaped."

Announcements and confessions:

- On behalf of Larry Faller, Patti Ingram-Spencer thanked Bob Long and Kathleen Shaffer for their hard work assisting the City of GV and Weiss Landscaping transforming the South Auburn St. parking lot. Good news...All of the plants are still alive!
- Andrea Eggleton announced she and Christian are expecting their first child in March. Congratulations!
- Kathleen Shaffer reminded everyone to pitch in and sell dinner tickets for the Trick or Tri-Tip fundraiser dinner on Halloween 10/31 from 4-6
- Bob Long confessed his twin grandchildren stayed with him 6 more days. He is now an expert at 2nd grade math. He was fined $12 (2x6)
- Bob also mentioned our Virtual Bike Ride on November 4-8. You can sign up online, encourage your friends to participate and also share the link to your Facebook page
- President Seth presented Becky and Cristian Sibaja with their 1st Paul Harris Fellow
- Larry Faller tested positive for Covid-19, which turned out to be a false positive. He subsequently tested negative twice. He was fined $10 for being healthy.
- Viv Tipton was fined $21 for a 9 day camping trip to Idaho. They saw 100's of elk and some moose,
