So many people are doing so many good things to empower the youth in our community and the youth of the world. On Monday, Tina Nader of the United Nations Association: Hawaii-Honolulu and a colleague Mae Mendelson gave a presentation on Peace Child International aimed at resolving conflict by bringing people together. Its current emphasis is on youth unemployment, and it has developed "a number of training programs in Europe, India, and Africa to increase employability skills in young people."

July 22-24 of this year, Peace Child will hold an Intergenerational Generations United Conference at the Honolulu Convention Center with an action project at the Waikalua Loko Fish Pond and an intergenerational Model United Nations simulation among other events. Peace Child is looking for sponsors for a table or booth at the Family Resource Fair on July 24.

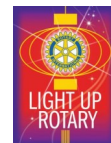

Another of the Peace Child's projects has been a World Youth Congress (WYC). Participating youth select a theme for each WYC. The first congress was held in Hawai'i in 1999. Succeeding congresses were in Morocco, Scotland, Quebec, Turkey, and Rio de Janeiro. 2016 congress will be held in Honolulu in July, (continues on page 2)

February 21, 2015

Aloha,

Rotarians will celebrate 100 years of Service Above Self in Hawaii, when the Rotary Club of Honolulu marks its Centennial July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016. The milestone will be marked by a special section of the Honolulu Star-Advertiser, which will be included in the July 1st issues of major newspaper publications statewide.

The special section will feature stories, photographs, and an overview of all Rotary Clubs in District 5000, as well as a chronicle of the evolution of the 'mother club'. We need and welcome your support!

The Honolulu Star-Advertiser and the Rotary Club of Honolulu invite you and or your business and others in the community, to purchase an ad in this supplement to demonstrate the appreciation and support of Rotary's impact in communities at home and around the world. This is an excellent opportunity to take advantage of the special package pricing offered by the Honolulu Star-Advertiser.

Jay Higa, Director of Advertising/Business Development and Honolulu Star-Advertiser Associate Publisher, will be our contact for this project. If you are interested in being a valued part of this statewide Centennial keepsake, and want to take advantage of the preferred Early-Bird rates, please contact Jay at (808)529-4712 or through email at jhiga@staradvertiser.com.
