Celina Quach

Our meeting was an Induction/fellowship meeting. During the fellowship it was announced that PDG John Steelquist is celebrating his 17th year in Rotary. Carleen introduced her guest Jay Bloom.

Past District Governors

were introduced as usual as well as past presidents. It was announced that August 1st a family picnic will be held at Moanalua park which is at the end of the road as you turn off Red Hill toward Tripler Army Hospital and take the right turn that parallels the preschool on the side of the hill. Check google Maps if you have a problem.

A reminder of "Pacesetters" first meeting on August 15th. For further information contact Donna Prather at dprat89233@aol.com or hawaiiacesetters@gmail.com.

August 18th is a Membership Mixer at "M" Bar and Grill in Restaurant Row.

Terri Madden announced the Disaster Preparedness event on August 22nd from 8–2 Outside Longs Drugs in Kahala Mall. For participation, call Terri at 218-0103.

August 24th will see our District Governor Del Green will make his annual visit.

Our new inductees were Celina above and Ka'ili introduced by John Strandberg. Two amazing young women whose accomplishments since high school have been nothing short of amazing. Celina is the former President of the Kalani Interact Club and her two sisters are a similar path being active in the interact club. Ka'ili children honor her with her oldest daughter studying kinesthesiology at UH Manoa and her son has completed his degree in Biology and plans to continue to study medicine.

Club Assembly at the Maple Garden Restaurant

One of the greatest turnouts of club members for an off site Assembly.
Many ideas presented for the up coming year with a lot of exciting programs put forth.
