We have had quite a busy past month with our speaker on the 10, Mr. Ollan in from Philadelphia, PA a Security Specialist in Physical Security. He showed us how 80% of all locks made in America can be picked with little effort. He also showed us many different types of lock and one lock that is nearly pick proof.

We had our Thanksgiving luncheon for the Lunalilo home members with a performance by the Hula Troup from Germaine's Luau.

We had our Christmas Party with most members attending. All had a good time.

We jus finished the Gift of Giving in Waianae for 450+ homeless families with food and gifts for all.

We have all become familiar with these pubs through Carol's almost 40 years of history as a writer for MIDWEEK and SunPress. Carol was willing to share little bits of history and little known secrets of our neighborhoods, for those who favor being a little niele (Hawaiian for nosey). Carol's insights, by making this contribution to our community, are filled with delightful tidbits of our history. Carol, a resident of Kahalu'u for 30+ years, has three children who have made their own contributions to their life and our community. Carol especially likes stories about farms and green spaces. Her husband, a Rotary member for many years, has brightened her life as well.

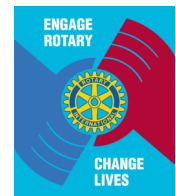

Carol has invited us all to be her ears and eyes for our community and to offer her noteworthy ideas for her publication. If you are interested in doing so, call her by the 1st Wednesday each month for inclusion in the upcoming edition of MIDWEEK. Carol can be reached at MIDWEEK at (808)529-4850, FAX: (808)585-6324 or CELL (808)291-2878. Her email is cchang@midweek.com news paper.
