Congratulations to TV Producer and VASH President Jessica Lani Rich!

We are thrilled to announce that Jessica is the recipient of the 2026 Top Cop Hawai'i Randall "Randy" Mack Award! This special recognition honors her outstanding dedication and commitment to helping visitors facing adversity and crisis in Hawai'i for the past 22 years as the President of the Visitor Aloha Society of Hawaii. With approximately 400 people in attendance, our TV team is incredibly proud of Jessica and grateful for her compassion, leadership, and Aloha that earned her this well-deserved honor!

Randall "Randy" Mack Award

Awarded to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding service, leadership, or support benefiting the fields of law enforcement, emergency management, private security, or criminal justice in the State of Hawaii and community service. The recipient must have made a meaningful and sustained contribution over a period of at least five years.

Date awarded: October 30, 2026

TOP COP Hawaii Board of Directors President Jeremiah Pahukula, Jr. and Director Dr. Jennifer Borja-Johnson presented VASH President Jessica Lani Rich with the Randall "Randy" Mack Award.