

GETTING TO KNOW – CHRISTOPHER JOHNSON

Chris and his husband Dane, together with their Chocolate Labrador, Larry, recently moved to Oahu. Through joining the Rotary Club of Honolulu, he is hoping to find like-minded individuals who are devoted to serving the community they live in.

He looks forward to participating in the Club's community service projects. Chris also enjoys remodeling and restoring historical homes.

What brings Christopher to Rotary? The chance to expand his social and professional relationships while finding ways to assist the community.

Here is more about Christopher:

I am a seasoned real estate agent who is serving the vibrant island of Oahu. With a passion for connecting buyers and sellers, Christopher has established himself as a trusted advisor in the real estate market.

Christopher's love for real estate stems from the joy of guiding clients through the exciting journey of buying or selling a home. His keen understanding of the intricacies of real estate transactions and past construction experience coupled with his genuine care for his clients, sets him apart in the industry.

As a negotiation expert, Christopher has successfully navigated complex estate sales and assisted numerous physicians in finding homes that suit their unique needs. Handling estate sales and helping families liquidate their family assets require a strong and compassionate balance which is also one of his professional talents.

Beyond real estate, Christopher finds joy in remodeling and restoring homes, a passion that fuels his creativity and attention to detail. Alongside his husband Dane and their beloved Chocolate Labrador Larry, Christopher cherishes the beauty of Oahu and embraces the island's lifestyle.

With a commitment to excellence and a warm, personable approach, Christopher is dedicated to serving the real estate needs of Oahu with integrity and professionalism.

What talents and/or expertise will Christopher bring to RCOH?

“Hands that are willing to help with tasks, ears that are willing to listening to ideas and concerns, eyes that are willing to view different ideas and perspectives of the group and an empathetic concern for all to achieve greatness.”
