RICH: Announced the District Conference from May 14 – 16. You can go to the District 5000 website to register.

RICH: We'll go into "breakout" rooms next, with 5 to 6 people in each room, to allow you to engage more personally. Today's topic is: "What brought you to Rotary and What Has Kept you in Rotary."

Dave Shanahan introduced Rear Admiral (Ret) Pete Gumataotao, Director of the Daniel K. Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies (DKI APCSS). Admiral Gumataotao discussed the role of the DKI APCSS in promoting relations with countries in the Indo-Pacific. They work with US governmental agencies and regional institutions and international organizations in helping to maintain security. It was Daniel Inouye's vision that if leaders could come together with shared understandings, they could come up with mutual solutions. The organization seeks security, prosperity and stability for Indo-Pacific nations. DKI APCSS seeks to achieve Ike Pono - to know and do what is right.

PRESIDENT RICH announced that next week is the celebration of rotary service program to launch the service-above-self campaign.

Brian started the video of Hawaii Aloha.
