

Mutual Agreement

- (a) The parties mutually agree to regularly exchange club bulletins, membership directories and other publications suitable to achieving the stated purpose.
- (b) The parties also mutually agree to exchange information related to their respective activities and to report this information to members through their bulletins.
- (c) Whenever members of the club of one city visit the other city, they shall make every effort to attend the regular meetings of the sister club, and to make reports on recent activities of the visited club. on their return.
- (d) Members of each club will extend business and sightseeing assistance to visitors from the other club, as much as possible.
- (e) Members of each club will discuss and consider joining together in pursuing various service projects that will facilitate the accomplishment of the stated purpose.
- (f) Members of each club will discuss and consider adopting exchange, travel, educational and other similar programs involving Rotarian members of the respective clubs as well as their children and grandchildren.

JOHN R. DWYER, JR.
 President, Rotary Club of Honolulu
 Honolulu, Hawaii

Signature: John R. Dwyer, Jr. Date: 1/5/93

EDWARD Y. WAY
 President, Rotary Club of Taipei
 Taipei, Taiwan, R. O. C.

Signature: Edward Y. Way Date: Dec 24, 1992

JOHN C. BROGAN
 Secretary, Rotary Club of Honolulu
 Honolulu, Hawaii

Signature: John C. Brogan Date: 1/5/93

HENRY H. C. WUN
 Secretary, Rotary Club of Taipei
 Taipei, Taiwan, R. O. C.

Signature: Henry H. C. Wun Date: Dec 24, 1992