From the January Board meeting

- ◇ February 3 & 10 & 24 meetings will be hybrid (WSD Community Room + ZOOM) February 17 meeting will be ZOOM only. May return to meeting at Diamond Jim's March 17.
- ◇ Recruiting students interested in participating in World Affairs Seminar. Club does have a few scholarships available. This year's topic is "Urban Life in a Changing World." June 19-25, 2021, the students will meet at Carroll University. Know of an interested 15-18 year old student? Contact Alex Yanez (414 469-3260 alex.yanez@usc.salvationarmy.org) Additional information at worldaffairsseminar.org/was2021.
- ◇ High school academic scholarship application form and information should be posted on the club's website soon.
- ◇ $49183 donation to PolioPlus was #1 in district.

- ◇ "What is Your Passion?" Do you have some cause, or circumstance that literally drives you to become involved? In my review of the Rotary magazine and the people who have been covered, it seems that almost all of these people have a strong passion for why they are involved. It might be clean water, education to lead to a better life; polio eradication or other health concerns like cancer; fixing bicycles for transportation. I could go on, but the question is: What is your passion? As you seriously think about what that passion is, how could this be translated into a Rotary club event? It is my hope each one of you will reach out to our President, Jim Thorsen, and share your ideas with him and let's see where it takes us.
