March 15 Club Assembly. + welcome Timothy Nicholas to Rotary +create 32 backpacks for Pathfinders. Join the "assembly line" as we put the snacks, hygiene products and gift cards into the backpacks for homeless Milwaukee teens served by Pathfinders.

Pathfinders: employs a Housing First model where they secure safe housing for young people in crisis as quickly as possible. They know that housing is an essential tool for stability. Once housed, Pathfinders provides youth with comprehensive services that will help them find success.

A non-judgmental approach where the primary goal is to reduce the likelihood of harm to youth.

Pathfinders brings safety, hope and healing to youth in crisis in the Greater Milwaukee area. Our youth are facing interconnected issues such as homelessness, sexual abuse, exploitation and trafficking, mental health challenges and many other forms of trauma.

Craft Fair Get those signs posted in your yard/ neighborhood. Craft fair booth are sold out and the waiting list is full. Now all we need are the customers. It's all to fund scholarships.

Sylvia Whitlock Leadership Award

The Sylvia Whitlock Leadership Award honors one Rotary member each year who has actively worked to advance women in Rotary. It is named for the first female Rotary club president, who went on to lead change for women around the world through Rotary. The award was originally established by a group of Rotarians before the Board of Directors voted to make it an official RI award.

The first recipient of Rotary International's Sylvia Whitlock Leadership Award, Chin Mei Lu of the Rotary Club of Taipei Taimei, Taiwan, has spent more than 30 years working for women, girls, and others around the world. She has helped educate girls in Nepal, immunized children in India, supported girls in Uganda who have learned to sew menstrual belts, and helped people in Taiwan who are blind.
