Nicole McNevin of Neenah Receives Rotary Peace Fellowship

Nicole McNevin of Neenah has received a Rotary Peace Fellowship for 2023-2025. She has been accepted into the Master's Course in Peace Studies, Public Policy and Public Research Program, at International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan.

She speaks Japanese and is currently in the 4th year of the Japan Exchange and Teaching Program where she teaches English and culture to students with low incomes.

"I applied for this program because of its liberal arts nature, which will enable me to draw from quantitative and qualitative fields to improve my understanding of how to create a more peaceful and equitable world" said Ms McNevin.

The Rotary Peace Fellowship is designed for leaders with work experience in peace and development. The fellows are committed to community and international service and the pursuit of peace.
