UN CHARTER

Members of Rotary International joined representatives of the United Nations on 11 December to observe a key milestone in the quest for global solidarity: The 80th anniversary of the signing of the UN charter. Leaders from both organizations reflected on and reaffirmed the principles the UN stands for.

In the 1940s, when the world was torn apart by war, visionary people began to ask the most urgent questions of all: 'How could trust be rebuilt across borders where violence had reigned? And how would humanity guard itself against repeating its own worst mistakes? In that pivotal moment, Rotary was one of the few organizations in the world that stepped forward with both hope and ideas.

Rotary members served as official observers at the UN Charter Conference in 1945. They helped create agendas, proposed wording for resolutions, and mediated disputes between delegates.
