Rotary Members in the 16 World Cup host cities in North America plan events to showcase Rotary and foster international understanding. The games provide a unique opportunity for Rotary clubs to offer hospitality and promote Rotary's work on the global stage.

Larry Lunsford, RI's president-nominee, is encouraging districts to use Rotary Friendship Exchanges to connect Rotary soccer fans from around the world with local members willing to host them. The exchanges offer Rotary members, their family and friends the opportunity to visit and host one another in their homes and clubs.

Some members are working with community leaders to erect peace poles before or during the World Cup. Atlanta has agreed to install a pole there. Rotarians in all three World Cup venues in Mexico are planning peace pole ceremonies.

..Rotary Club of Roswell GA, is training local law enforcement officers and service providers to recognize the signs of trafficking and assist people who may be trafficked. Rotary Clubs in Seattle will provide specialized training and support to companies located near matches. In Mexico clubs are collaborating with the Rotary Action Group Against Slavery to train service providers and prevent trafficking.
