THE CHANGING OF THE GUARD

This week was our Change-Over dinner, held at the Lighthouse Hotel on 4 July. Over 80 Rotarians, partners and guests enjoyed a sumptuous dinner of assorted canapés and a choice of marinated chicken breast with tomato & capsicum sauce or char grilled sirloin with sticky garlic and red wine jus. This was followed by a substantial serving of sticky date pudding or apple & pear pie. Special guests included the Mayor, David Smith and wife Tresslyn, and two of Glenys' children Daniel and Shannon.

TOASTS

Stephen Hinton presented a toast to Rotary International; current membership is over 1.2 m world-wide.

Ben Andrews, responded by summing up the new theme of Peace Through Service, introduced by International president and Japanese born, Sakuji Tanaka.

Terry Coote, followed with the toast to partners in recognition of their help and support on projects, sausage sizzles, and the weekly commitment to Rotary meetings.

Jennifer Coote, responded on behalf of partners with a vote of thanks for recognizing the sacrifices they make for Rotarians attendance at weekly meetings.

SPECIAL THANKS

to Pauline Hinton for the beautiful table decorations.

Thanks Jim Stephen for slide show of the year that has been! Jim ran a competition all year to put a caption on a tragic photo of Zaki using his phalanges as a tool for measurement. Jim received four admirable responses including ; I promise I am only going to take this much off! I missed the plane by this much! Something about Wee Willy Winky.....( let's not go there) But the winning caption was.....

This is how close I was to saving his life , but I was singing the blues!!!!

WEEKLY COMPETITION

Thanks to Boyd Brown, who donated Telstra products as this week's prizes.

Ben Andrews won a Telstra Smart phone- just what you need Ben!

David Sutherland, won a Easy View cordless phone- just some of the perks David!
 Lee Dillon won 1 month's access to Broad band.
 Murray Harris will be singing in rain with his new umbrella

FINES;

Since it was the 4th July (Independence Day), Turk Ellis gave us a history lesson on the US of A.

Peter Hill carried the box for phoning Turk in Broome whilst he was on a SECRET wedding anniversary. Moral of the story -GPS is a good thing if you haven't got it on your phone! Second moral; Turk has set the bar for wedding anniversaries guys so lift your game! (not to mention the pearls!!!!)

Fines that followed included comparisons between Rotary members and USA historical characters. Can you guess who was compared to: first female secretary of state, famous gangsters ( Al Capone), actors ( Clint Eastwood) , entertainers (Sinatra), racing, financiers ( Rockefellers), medicos ( Dr Kildare), construction ( empire state builders), sportsman ( Mohammad Ali- this was a hard call but the cyclist got done!)

Yeah Bro Turk- the creative juices (wine) must have been flowing when you did this one.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

This has been tabled on the website, with the financial audit to be completed in October. Glenys remembered some good things; the fines- Ben, new apprentice funeral director, measures up Greg after an illness, Kim reports car stolen- police find car, with owner driving it! Five new members.

The not so good news was the passing of Eli Ghasseb, and a number of old favourites retired or transferred. Some surprises were being a trustee of a deceased estate.

Glenys thanked her committee; with some characteristically named bottles of wine. Guess who got a bottle of wine called Inheritance; Balance; Element; Promised Land; Scribblers- they were so clever I couldn't recall all of them!

PAUL HARRIS FELLOWSHIP;

Thanks to Ray Philp for the slide show of past members- lots of giggles about hairstyles and glasses. Congratulations to our past members. Wally Jones presented the latest award to Ray Jordan - a very humble , man of few words ( not my experience of him, I can tell you !).

However, it was astonishing to learn of your contributions to community Ray- to name a few; extensive service with volunteer fire brigade in southwest towns; work with Asian orphanage, reading glasses, stamps, ring pulls, scout camps, Treendale house, Food bank, schools' breakfast programmes.... We acknowledge your years of community service mate ! Well done !

100% ATTENDANCE AWARDS;

Congratulations to Glenys M, Ray P, Rod D, Stephen H, Zaki D, John G;

DERM FOSTER AWARD;

Terry Coote was the recipient of this year's international service award for his involvement with the Kokoda trip, water project in Loi Loi and Treendale Residential care project.

ROTARIANS OF THE YEAR;

Congratulations to Ray Philp ( ITC); Rod Downe (membership); Mike Honeywell (BTBall) Gordon Golby ( craftsman); Peter Hill ( Chn Fair), Bruce Lynch ( Men's Shed), Boyd Brown ( sausage sizzler); Murray Harris( BBQ, fundraising, photos)

HANDOVER

Ray presented another historic slide show of all the president's men from the past 45 years. The chain of office was a bit lighter in Wally Jones' day and Terry Coote was a baby photo! President Glenys couldn't wait to hand over the chain of office to president elect Stephen Hinton. Stephen congratulated Glenys on her outstanding contribution to the club, having ticked off all the projects and jobs she intended to complete in her year of office. Stephen thanked members for the support they are going to give him and emphasized this year's focus was on membership- looking after the current members and recruitment of more women and younger members, and the move to a more paper less communications portfolio.

MEMBERS NEWS

Rob Prescott is out and about in Bunbury, he can't remember the month before or after hospitalization, but he is coming good and should be back soon.

Peter Hill is now the official FIFO holiday and golfing guru! In Bunbury for just 7 days this time!
