KEVIN'S GEOGRAPHY LESSON

Returned Travelling Club Member- Kevin Coote was Guest Speaker this week. He and Annette recently returned from a sailing trip through the Mediterranean Sea.

Before setting off they participated in a race series at the local yacht club. Naturally Kev was victorious and now has a large trophy to prove it.

Kevin and Annette sailed 3000 nautical from Croatia to Turkey and passed Delphi a city that dates back to 4000 BC, before entering the Corinth Channel. The mosaics shown here were in Montenegro and date back to a few hundred years BC.

The scenic photo shows a white city that is Santorini which sits on an old volcano, one of the most popular of the Greek islands. The images of crystal clear water gave us all an understanding of why the area is so popular with sailors.

No pirates attacked but a fast moving cold front one night and 90+ knot winds put the skipper, crew and boat to the test.

Glenys McDonald handed out homework for all members to be completed before next week's meeting and emailed to her at glenys.mcdonald7@bigpond.com

Topic: Suggest a project you would like to see happen in Bunbury if you were given a sum of funds mentioned on the night.

Mr Monteleone's wish was that any funds left to Rotary should be distributed to those in the community in greatest need. So keep that in mind when nominating your ideas to where the funds should go.

John Saunders reminded members that the QUBE Ports and Bulk Truck Pull Festival will take place on Saturday 15th November 2014 at Bicentennial Square between 10 am and 1 pm.

Teams will pull a 98 ton truck a distance of 3.6 meters. The team completing the distance in the shortest time wins!

Teams will consist of 25 members who contribute an entry fee of $50 each or $1250 per team.

Thirteen teams have already signed up to compete, at least 19 teams are required before the event commences.

Clubs are encouraged to form a team to compete or to recruit a team of high school students to compete as their sponsored team.

Major sponsors so far are: QUBE, GWN and City of Bunbury.

Proceeds to support research on autism.

See last page of Bully for more details.

As the next two meetings are not being held at the Rose Hotel the Duties roster looks somewhat different.
