GOOD MORNING!

On Wednesday morning 24th September the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of South Bunbury was the first of the new morning format. Once a month the club will replace the weekly evening meet with a Business Breakfast Meeting. The first breakfast meeting was held at the Bunbury Lighthouse Beach Resort and was well attended by members and guests. Guest speaker for the morning was David Byatt of Concise Creative. David gave a motivating talk full of marketing and branding advice for small and medium sized business and for organizations such as Rotary. David's talk was delivered with passion and enthusiasm, it was an energizing start to a busy day and to the new meeting format.

Next meeting will be a combined meeting with Rotary and BCCI.

We are fortunate to have a keynote speaker introducing a topical subject of interest to very many of us. See details in the flyer below.

CONSPIRACY THEORY

You may recall a report in this publication a few weeks ago in which the editor drew attention to a suspicious raffle draw. On that occasion the jackpot and two bottles of wine were awarded by “Honest Ray” to a single punter. The editor was surprised to see that there continue to be unlikely coincidences at meetings, right under our noses. All attendees at the meeting were invited to place their business cards in the silver bucket for a lucky draw.

Examine the evidence for yourself and reach your own conclusion.

THE DRAW

Note the key personnel that morning all in this image, the organisers of the event captured together in this one picture. Holding the bucket of cards, drawing the winning card, working in the background and looking on expectantly.

AND THE WINNER!

Now was that another surprising coincidence that is entirely explained by random variability and pure chance?

Or is there some smoke and mirror action here?
