WHERE'S WALLY AND THE GONG

Members had a very cosy and quiet meeting tonight with only five tables. Also in absentia was our nametags and the gong, but we got by with all the other protocols. Committee reports were given a higher status and provided some of the entertainment for the evening. The meeting closed at 7.40- A record!

Some of the happy chappies!

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Vocational: Andy Perrella; Next vocational visit is to Geographe Enterprises on 7 Nov. Be there at 5.30- tour commences at 5.45. After the tour we will be having a BBQ at the air force cadet centre. There will be 15 members from Busselton Rotary also attending- A good opportunity for networking. Andy explained that vocational visits were opportunities to showcase business, amenities and advertise.

New Generation; Neil Sinclair; Could members think about a potential 18-28 yrs old to be nominated for RYLA. We have a nomination for the Special Needs category

Community: Peter Hill; Time to get the Sail into Life pontoons out- so 4-5 volunteers required this Saturday morning at 8.00. Yes, the water will be cold Sandro!

Also the Val Ishman walk on Sunday 28 Oct at 10.00 am needs marshals. Meet at the Parade Hotel. Contact Peter Hill 08 97959193

Public Relations; Kevin Eagles; thanks to everyone for their support of the Dr Fiona Wood's night last week. Great success and special thanks to Rod and Carol Downe.

Can members bring along any old Rotary Downunder Magazines to be placed in Dr's surgeries.

We are applying for a community award this year- so any history of rotary activities during the year would be greatly appreciated- please email these to Ian Robertson, at eyes2@westnet.com.au .

WEEKLY COMPETITION

Murray was back on board to draw the raffle- but he forgot about 'this day in history' so he gave us a verbal slide show of his annual hockey pilgrimage to Tasmania. WA hosted 6 teams with 4 of those making division one and one team went through to the semi-finals. The oldest player was 83 so Murray has a few more years of playing. No- I am not insinuating Murray is 83- on the contrary he must have at least 20 years of playing (hockey). No jackpot tonight so the raffle will go up to about $290 next week. Wine and goodies went to David K, Murray C and Glenys M.

FINES

Rather than identify the offenders – I thought I would graciously let you guess who!

Who.....

- Won a $50 gift voucher from Growers Market and didn't donate it to the Foodbank
- Proposed a back-up plan to stage a heart attack if Fiona Woods did not turn up
- Came back from 3 week holiday
- Wore badges when it was a No Badge Meeting
- Called a 6.30 meeting and turned up late
- Was sighted in the Bunbury Mail this week
- Confused Harvey Rotary for Harvey Rosary
- Discusses burial of pets with owners while painting the pontoons- some whispers about sniffing the paint!
