Hi Roger

how are you ? getting back into sailing ? I have gone back to race management/start boat at the Geelong club - don't forget if you are ever in Melbourne or Geelong to give me a call (0438.826.610).

I have found a Rotary club near my office that meets in the morning. Could you please arrange a transfer of membership ?

It is Central Geelong in District 9780. Do I need to send any other information ?

Thank you and warm regards

Linda

MEDIA RELEASE 14 November 2012

The Leukaemia Foundation is the only national not-for-profit organisation dedicated to the care and cure of patients and families living with leukaemias, lymphomas, myeloma and related blood disorders. 1800 620 420 | www.leukaemia.org.au

Daryl Braithwaite 'Concert for Cure and Care' for the Leukaemia Foundation

Tickets are on sale now as legendary Australian singer Daryl Braithwaite comes to Bunbury WA for one night, March 24, 2012 for the inaugural 'Concert for Cure and Care' raising funds for the Leukaemia Foundation.

In a distinguished career spanning more than thirty years, Daryl Braithwaite is one of Australia's award winning premier performers.

The phenomenally successful album "Edge" was released in 1988 and spent well over a year in the national charts. Edge spawned hit singles "As The Days Go By", "All I Do", "Let Me Be" and the gold single "One Summer". The album topped the ARIA charts in 1989 and became the highest selling CD in CBS Australia's history. With a voice that soars with inspiration, soul and warmth, Daryl Braithwaite should not be missed.

Support the Leukaemia Foundation in the South West and spread the word to family and friends about the 'Concert for Cure and Care.'

"We hope to raise significant funds from the 'Concert to Cure and Care' to continue the valuable work of the Leukaemia Foundation," said Deb Wilkins, Community Relationships Regional.

The Leukaemia Foundation provides free support services for patients and their families including: information, emotional support, transport and accommodation for regional families required to relocate closer to city hospitals. The Foundation also invests millions of dollars each year in vital research to improve treatments and find cures.

The Concert will be held at Bunbury Regional Entertainment Centre on 24 March 2012 at 8pm. Tickets can be purchased via 1300 661 272.

Tickets- $44.50 and are on sale NOW and in time for Christmas!!!
